ROPES COURSE

Want some adventure in your retreat?

Ready to challenge yourself and your group?

Just want to have some high-flying fun?

Our course gives you the opportunity to scale up a climbing wall, work your way up a vertical obstacle course, maneuver across difficult traversing elements, and zoom down an exciting zip line! There are also a number of engaging games, initiatives and team building activities which can be incorporated into your experience.

Our Ropes Course Manager can design a program which will help you accomplish the goals and objectives of your retreat, whatever they may be. Whether you are looking for something full of challenge and growth during your retreat or just a thrilling shared experience, the Ropes Course will not disappoint.

Please inquire about availability and pricing at least three weeks in advance. Advance reservations are required.
